and energy in our fundraisers. The fundraisers provide for most of the extra activities where we represent Sequoyah High School. We did great in the two carwashes at Advance Auto Parts in Soddy-Daisy in August, and we have a World's Finest Chocolate fundraiser going on this semester. Everyone can help!

Third, I challenge each Cadet to participate in at least one extra-curricular Team this year. We have Raiders season in First Semester. Drill Team, Color Guard, JROTC Leadership and Academic Board Teams, and Rifle Team competition seasons all start in First Semester and continue past the Christmas break into Second Semester. There is something for everyone to

From the Cadet Battalion Commander

Welcome back Cadets from last year and special welcome to the new Cadets this year. Sequoyah JROTC Eagle Battalion is planning on having a special year for 2013-2014. How well we do depends on the effort put forth by everyone in Alpha, Bravo, and Charlie Companies and the coordination of the Cadet Staff.

As the Cadet Battalion Commander, I would like to put out THREE challenges to everyone in the Eagle Battalion. First, let's set the highest standards on wearing the new blue dress uniforms. They have a snappy look, but only if they are kept clean, worn completely, and with the utmost respect.

SECOND, we need everyone's participation

join and the learning, experience, and competition will only make you a better Cadet, student, and citizen.

My supporting staff and I want Cadets to be involved. Let us know your ideas on how Sequoyah JROTC Eagle Battalion can support our school and community!

-Cadet/ LTC Luis Hernandez

Eagle Battalion Commander

From the Command Sergeant Major

To new Cadets this year, welcome to the Eagle Battalion. We are glad you came to Sequoyah and glad that you joined JROTC. Moving to a new school with new friends can be a big deal. I am in a new position, too. I was a Company First Sergeant last year. Now as the Cadet Battalion Command Sergeant Major, I will give my best effort to support every cadet's leadership and learning experience.

There are a lot of things we can do during the school day to benefit Sequoyah High School and make it a better place. Every cadet will get at least one opportunity to participate in the daily U.S flag raising or lowering and the reciting of the Pledge of Allegiance. We should all be proud of our school, state and country and this is a great way to display that.

All Cadets should make it a point to keep Sequoyah High School as clean as possible. If there is trash, don't tell someone about it . . . PICK IT UP. Encourage others to be respectful of school property and to clean up after themselves. We have a lot of visitors to Sequoyah that bring learning opportunities, grants, and materials so that we can use them to better ourselves. Sequoyah

High School needs to look its best at all times.

The last thing I will say is that I expect us all to wear our uniforms with the most pride possible. Make a plan so you do not forget anything, and let your other teachers know about Uniform Days. Remember the three C's of Clean, Complete, and Correct.

I am proud to be the Cadet Command Sergeant Major, proud to be at Sequoyah High School, and proud to help you show that. Let's have a great year!

-Cadet Command Sergeant Major Sidney McGill

Bits from the Special Teams:

Raider - Amy Wilson— Raiders build self confidence, and self- esteem. Shy people that join the Raider Team won't end the season and still be shy! It strengthens your body. Raiders also build leadership skills. I believe everyone should try the Raider Team. We will get muddy and have fun. Its too good of an opportunity to pass up!

Rifle Team - Patrick Eberhart -

Rifle Team is a very fun extra-curricular activity for anyone in JROTC. Not only is it fun but it provides a chance to gain a skill that most may not have the chance to gain in everyday life.

JLAB - Cody Collins -

JLAB is one of the most fun yet educational experiences in JROTC not only is it helpful in an educational sense but it also prepares you for future life experiences.

Drill Team - Jasmine Solomon

Drill team rocks! We work hard a lot! It's lots of fun and it sure is challenging!

Alpha Company Commander: Chris Cox

Welcome! I am Cadet Captain Chris Cox. I am the company commander for Alpha Company. Here is a welcome and some words of advice. First of all, welcome to Sequoyah High School. I wish you the best as you spend your four years here.

On another matter welcome to our JROTC program. We have some of the best cadets in Tennessee here. I hope you find your place amongst all of us.

One more thing on uniform days- be watchful of mistakes on you and other cadets. Also, treat other cadets with respect. Have a good year and do your best!

-Cadet Captain Cox

Alpha Company 1Sgt: Daniel Reno

Hello, I am Cadet 1Sgt Reno. I'd like to welcome you to Sequoyah. Being in JROTC now makes you a cadet. As a cadet you need to set an example in Alpha Company for the rest of the school.

To set an example you need leadership. This class will help you learn leadership skills. Bullying will not be tolerated. Don't create a fight if someone being bullied. Handle it with a sense of poise and rationality.

Also, we need to represent the program. The car wash is a good example of representing our program and thanks to the people that came and supported us.

-First Sergeant Reno

Bravo Company Commander: Ashley Braswell

Hello, Welcome LET r's, I am Bravo's Company Commander Cadet Captain Braswell. I want to thank all the cadets who joined JROTC. Our company motto is: "Hard as ice, slick as rain, Bravo Company will bring the pain, we're mighty fine, we're mighty tuff and no other company will compete against us! HOOAH!" What it means is that the things you want to hard but if you pay attention and listen you will learn fast. We may yell at times but it's only to make you a better person. When you wear the uniform it really brings you out and shows us who you really are. JROTC is not to make you go into the Army or any other military branch it is to "Motivate Young People To Be Better Citizens." We want to be the best company we can be by teaching one another to be respectful and make sure that we all learn how to have discipline. We have many expectations for our cadets in JROTC. We will teach ya'll facing movements, the correct hand placements on the uniform, how to become physically fit, military map reading, marching, etc. JROTC is a great program! - Cadet Captain Braswell

Bravo Company 1Sgt: D'Tashus Henry

Welcome LET r's, my name is 1Sgt Henry. I am the First Sergeant for Bravo Company in the Eagle Battalion. Our company commander, Cadet Captain Braswell, and I want to bring out the best in our company. Together, we will strive to be the best that we can be as a company. We will teach you everything you need to know from facing movements, hand-saluting, marching, physical training, cadet creed, and more. You may think this is a lot of work, but we do quite a bit of activities such as military ball, white water rafting, carwashes, chocolate fundraisers, and even Six Flags over Georgia! From myself and Cadet Captain Braswell we hope you have a jubilant year!

-First Sergeant Henry

Charlie Company Commander: Ashley Hixson

Hello, I am Cadet Captain Hixson, I am the Company Commander of Charlie Company. Our motto is "Make way, coming through, Charlie Company's on the move, Hooah!"

pany will be the most minded, the most sharp company there is.

- Cadet Captain Hixson

Be the best Charlie Company we can be. We can have fun while being the best.

Charlie Company is the 3rd company, but Charlie Com-

Charlie Company 1Sgt:: Dakota Wilkins

First of all, I'd like to say welcome to all the LET r's we have this year. I hope you stay with us till the end. My name is Dakota Wilkins and I am the First Sergeant for Charlie Company, also we have special teams that we have.

but I take pride in our uniforms. What I love about JROTC is it's like another family to me.

the Drill Team. Drill Team is all about discipline and being military bound.

-First Sergeant Wilkins

First off, this is our 3rd year so it won't be perfect but we are improving everyday. I'm not sure if I can speak for everyone

Now, I'll be telling you about the special teams we have. Raiders is like an adventure training, it's challenging but it's worth it. Rifle Team, you have to start out with taking a safety test and pass it. Color guard is a team that I believe comes from
